

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Notices of Reviews.

"It need not be said that the music is of a very high order; the printing is beautifully distinct; and the whole work is one likely to advance an object dear to so many Christian hearts—the service of united song around the family altar and in the courts of prayer."—Evening Hours.

"The value of a work such as this, which has been prepared with the utmost care, and under the highest professional auspices, cannot be over-estimated; and when we add that it is equally adapted for public or family worship, we have said enough to recommend it to the notice of our readers."—Oxford Chronicle.

"The Christian Psalmist' is a singularly cheap and excellent tune-book which may be recommended to the consideration of any congregation anxious to sing the best music in their service of song."—Literary World.

"There is no question that the book will take a high place in our churches."—Freeman.

Pictorial Text Papers, No. 11 (March 15), 1874.

Let Teachers and Superintendents see that each Scholar is supplied with a Lesson Paper a week in advance, and there will be no excuse for the children coming unprepared. For why should not Scholars as well as Teachers prepare for the Sunday's Lessons? Why should they not read and think, and inquire, during the previous week? What life and interest would be imparted to the Sabbath exercises if such were the case!

Few things are so essential to secure discipline and efficient management as proper and adequate registration. While this is true of all societies, it is pre-eminently so of the Sunday school. An unnumbered army would be a weakness instead of a strength, and a school of which you can gather no statistics will generally have very little which is worth recording.

To meet this want the Sunday School Union has issued Registers for each department of Sunday school work, any of which may be inspected on application at the depot of the Society.

No time is so appropriate for thoroughly organising a school as the present.

Price One Penny.

Teachers should read the "Sunday School Teacher" and the "Notes on the Lessons" for the current month.

Important Help to the Lessons for 1875.

JOSHUA AND HIS SUCCESSORS;

An Introduction to the Books of Joshua, Judges, Ruth, & Samuel I.

WITH

Notes, Critical and Illustrative.

BY WILLIAM H. GROSER, B.Sc. (LOND.),

Hon. Examiner in the Principles and Art of Teaching to the London Sunday School Union.

AUTHOR OF

"Our Work," "Ready for Work," "Bible Months," "The Teacher's Model and the Model Teacher," &c., &c.

This work has been prepared in illustration of those portions of Scripture which have been selected by the Sunday school authorities of England and America, as the basis of the International Lesson Scheme for the first six months of the year 1875.

The almost universal adoption of the International Scheme during the past twelve months, encourages the publishers in the issue of a carefully prepared Text-book for this year, which, it is hoped, will greatly facilitate the work of preparation for the exercises of the class.

The following have been selected from the Notices of the Press.

"Sunday School Teachers will find in this little volume real help in the elucidation of a difficult portion of Scripture history. Mr. Groser has consulted the latest and best authorities, especially the discoveries of the Palestine Exploration Society. His method is to tell the story, and to append to each chapter such critical and illustrative notes as the Scripture text may demand."—British Quarterly Review.

"The author does not come to his labours without having fully mastered his subject. . . . Evidently well conversant with the Hebrew text of the Scriptures he is able to form conclusions derived from a careful study of the original. We particularly notice the care and erudition bestowed on the very useful notes placed at the end of the chapters, from which the student may glean a large amount of useful information."—Jewish World.

"Mr. Groser has produced a capital handbook, discussing first the chronology, the Canaanite nations, the methods of warfare in those days, the moral difficulties of the history, etc., and then taking the Book of Joshua chapter by chapter, giving a summary of the contents of each, and short notes on historical, geographical, and critical points. Mr. Groser has done his work within the scope of his design very thoroughly, and with reference to the latest authorities."—Church Sunday School Magazine.

"Mr. Groser has supplied a real want, and supplied it well. We cordially recommend his interesting volume to all bible students."—Our Own Fireside.

"It is designed to assist primarily Sabbath school teachers, but will be found to contain so much excellent and valuable material as to render it of no mean service for Christian teachers in the higher grades of spiritual instruction."—Christian Age.

"The biblical student will derive a vast deal of information from the pages of this book, so well designed and so ably carried out."—Court Circular.

PICTORIAL LESSON PAPERS.

The Pictorial Lesson Papers contain on a small 4to. sheet the Golden Texts, the Lesson Verse, the references for Home Readings, and Questions upon the subject of the Sunday's Lesson, surmounted by a Pictorial Illustration of the Lesson. They are designed to promote the study of the Bible by scholars so that they, as well as their teachers, may be encouraged to prepare for the exercises of the class. The reverse side of the sheet is left blank, so that answers to the questions can be written thereon. Each packet contains twelve sheets for each Sunday in the month, and is published at Fourpence.

THE POCKET LESSON BOOK.

Contains the subject for each Sunday morning and afternoon—the Golden Texts, the Lesson Verse, and the Home Readings; forming a convenient Pocket Companion for the Teacher and the Scholar. Published Quarterly, price One Penny, or Sixpence per Dozen. These little books have attained to a very large circulation. All who wish to promote an active sympathy on the part of the scholars with the work of preparation should at once supply them with these valuable aids. They are compact in form and valuable in matter, and their large circulation is a guarantee of their utility.

NOTES ON SCRIPTURE LESSONS.

These Notes are published in connection with the uniform lesson system now so widely adopted throughout this country, and will be found an excellent groundwork for the preparation of School Lessons, whether for the infant or elder classes. By the use of the Notes a proper sequence of lessons is secured, and the Teacher is saved much trouble in the selection and arrangement of subjects. The Notes are published one month in advance, so as to allow ample time both for early distribution to teachers, and adequate study of the Lessons. Monthly, price 1d.; Yearly Vols., price 1s. 8d. each.

SCRIPTURE LESSONS FOR ELEMENTARY CLASSES.

Large type. Published Quarterly, price One Penny. These lessons consist of a selection from the reading portion allotted to the ~~elder~~ classes. Each Sunday's lesson is also printed on a single leaf, and sold at One Penny per dozen. The single leaves form Scripture handbills; and are intended to be given to the scholars at the close of the day's teaching to carry home and read to their parents. In this way they are doubly useful, first, in providing the scholars with the Scripture verses upon which the lesson is based, and second, in forming a suitable tract for distribution.

SUNDAY SCHOOL HYMNODY.

WITH a view to the improvement of a branch of Christian exercise, the importance of which is universally conceded, the Committee of the Sunday School Union have issued several new Hymn Books, to which they invite the attention of their friends and fellow-workers.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS' HYMN BOOK,

As its name implies, is especially prepared for the teachers' use. The arrangement of the book is as follows:—Part I. The Teachers' Work. Part II. The Teachers' Worship, Private and United. Part III. Hymns for Special Occasions; Morning and Evening; the Lord's Day; the New Year; the Opening of a New School; Sunday School Anniversaries; Jubilee Meetings; Conference and Union Meetings; Parents and Old Scholars' Meetings; Training Classes; Business Meetings; Election of Teachers; Death of a Teacher, &c., &c. Limp cloth, 4d.; cloth boards, gilt, 10d.

SONGS BY THE WAY.

A Hymnal for Young Christians and Inquirers. Containing 138 Hymns, suitable for Meetings of Christian Bands and Special Services. The title of this work will, it is hoped, sufficiently explain its scope and object. It has been compiled to meet a felt want—that of a Hymnal adapted to express the thoughts and feelings of young Christians. An attempt has been made to please different tastes, and in order to render the book still more acceptable, a considerable number of new compositions have been introduced from American sources. A simple classification has been adopted, under descriptive headings; and the compilers trust that these sacred "Songs" may prove helpful to many youthful disciples of the Redeemer, both in private devotion, and at meetings of Christian bands and similar gatherings. Price 1s. 4d. per dozen.

An edition of "SONGS BY THE WAY" with Tunes, is in preparation, and will shortly be issued.

THE CHILDREN'S PENNY HYMNAL,

Contains one hundred hymns for the Home and School, and will be found to be suitable for general use in the School and in the family. In its compilation the editors have endeavoured to produce a really good penny hymn book, which, while paying due regard to old and standard hymns, should include also those newer compositions which have of late become so popular. An edition of The Children's Penny Hymnal, is published with melodies attached to the hymns, which will be found greatly to facilitate its use. The Children's Penny Hymnal is published without tunes at One Penny, with tunes, paper covers, price 2d.; limp cloth, price 3d.

SUNDAY SCHOOL HYMNODY.

WITH a view to the improvement of a branch of Christian exercise, the importance of which is universally conceded, the Committee of the Sunday School Union have issued several New Hymn Books, to which they invite the attention of their friends and fellow-workers.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHER'S HYMN BOOK,

As its name implies, is especially prepared for the teacher's use. The arrangement of the book is as follows:—Part I. The Teacher's Work. Part II. The Teacher's Worship, Private and United. Part III. Hymns for Special Occasions; Morning and Evening; the Lord's Day; the New Year; the Opening of a New School; Sunday School Anniversaries; Jubilee Meetings; Conference and Union Meetings; Parents and Old Scholars' Meetings; Training Classes; Business Meetings; Election of Teachers; Death of a Teacher, &c., &c. Limp cloth, 4d.; cloth boards, gilt, 10d.

SONGS BY THE WAY

Is a Hymnal for young Christians and Inquirers. Containing 138 Hymns, suitable for Meetings of Christian Bands and Special Services. The title of this work, will, it is hoped, sufficiently explain its scope and object. It has been compiled to meet a felt want—that of a Hymnal adapted to express the thoughts and feelings of young Christians. An attempt has been made to please different tastes, and in order to render the book still more acceptable, a considerable number of new compositions have been introduced from American sources. A simple classification has been adopted, under descriptive headings; and the compilers trust that these sacred "Songs" may prove helpful to many youthful disciples of the Redeemer, both in private devotion and at meetings of Christian bands and similar gatherings. Price 1s. 4d. per dozen.

An edition of "SONGS BY THE WAY" is issued with Tunes, price 1s. 4d. each.

THE CHILDREN'S PENNY HYMNAL

Contains One Hundred Hymns for the Home and School, and will be found to be suitable for general use in the School and in the family. In its compilation the editors have endeavoured to produce a really good Penny Hymn Book, which, while paying due regard to old and standard hymns, should include also those newer compositions which have of late become so popular. An edition of The Children's Penny Hymnal is published, with melodies attached to the hymns, which will be found greatly to facilitate its use. The Children's Penny Hymnal is published without tunes at One Penny; with tunes, paper covers, price 2d.; limp cloth, price 3d.

SMITH'S AMERICAN ORGANS

in this country. The Smith American Organ Company have been manufacturing these beautiful instruments for the past five-and-twenty years, during which time they have disposed of

75,000 INSTRUMENTS

of different sizes and styles, and having during the past few years made extensive improvements in their machinery and appliances, they are now prepared to meet the increasing and ever-widening demand for these goods.

The following styles are specially recommended:—

No. 8.—Price £25.

This instrument is a strong, well-made, and useful organ, suitable for ordinary Sunday School purposes. The case is made of American oak, and the tone is clear and sweet. Compass, five octaves.

No. 15.—Price £38.

This organ is in every way equal to No. 8, having the additional advantage of six Stops, including Flute, Dulciana, Diapason, Sub-bass, Octave Coupler, &c. Each of the above is fitted with Knee Swell.

No. 215.—Price £48.

This instrument, which presents a very handsome appearance, has eight stops, including Kalophon, Dulciana, Flute, Tremolo, Diapason, &c., &c., and is fitted with Knee Swell.

No. 250.—Price £55.

The best American authorities have declared that

THESE ORGANS ARE THE BEST;

and now that they may be inspected and purchased in England, the Committee of the Sunday School Union hope that Superintendents desiring to procure organs for their Schools, and others who may wish to purchase organs for Chapel or Mission use, will visit the

BOOK SALOONS, 56, OLD BAILEY,

where they may inspect and test the various instruments kept on show. The instruments are made from the best materials, in the most exact manner, and are tuned and voiced under the direction of the most capable musicians. Their substantial qualities are well known, as there are still in existence, and in perfect order, "Smith Organs" made twenty years ago.

PRICES FROM £25 TO £55.

The tone of the American Organ is distinguished from that of all others by its superior sweetness, fulness, and voice-like quality, while the cases are made from artistic designs, harmonizing with the best modern furniture.
